

1. Name of Deceased: Donna Jo Brewer Gilhousen

Date of Passing Away: 09/13/2020

Cause of Death: Pancreatic Cancer

Age at Death: 85

Place of Death: Eugene, Oregon, USA

End of 49 Days period: 11/01/2020

Relationship with FPMT of the deceased person: Donna was a long-time devoted dharma student and dedicated practitioner. She was a student at the Tibet Center in New York City in the 1970s. She was a member of both the Shakyamuni Tibetan Buddhist Center in Portland, Oregon, founded by the Venerable Geshe Kalsang Damdul (of the Buddhist Dialectics College in Dharamsala, India), and the Kagyu Dakshang Chuling group in Eugene, Oregon. She attended various teachings at Maitripa College here in Portland, took instruction from Prof. Jim Blumenthal, attended the sessions when His Holiness Dalai Lama came to Portland, and did remote retreats with Venerable Chodron at Sravasti Abbey in Washington State. She has helped these and other Buddhist centers to flourish in their efforts in so many ways over many years -- making offerings, printing beautiful dharma materials, helping with bookkeeping, and so on. She cared for her husband Jan at home for eight years as he was overtaken by dementia.

Relationship with FPMT of the person requesting prayers: I am a long-time student with FPMT, with my first ever dharma teachings being from Kyabje Lama Zopa Rinpoche, Ven Geshe Gyatso, Jon Landau, and Jan Willis, attending the first month-long Mahamudra retreat at Vajrapani Institute in 1980. Travelled to Dharamsala in 1982 for three months for the glorious First Dharma Celebration!! Attended the amazing Six Yogas course offered by Lama Yeshe in 1983. I have moved around the country due to my husband Adam's schooling, training, and employment. Asked by Don Brown, we first hosted the Drepung Loseling monks with Glenn Mullin, a group of 9, when we were in Chapel Hill, NC on the first tour of sacred music and dance in the US in 1989. The second group we hosted was the Gyuto monks, with 25 people, where the first ever dharma teaching in NC was requested, of the Gyuto Monastery Abbot in Chapel Hill -- it was held at our house, outside on a hill sloping down from the house. A dharma study group was formed at that time, and Don Brown & I co-led some larger teaching events in the Raleigh/Durham area. We then moved to Washington DC, where I worked with Betty Rogers, et al on the International Year of Tibet DC Committee for a year of events. (years later with huge efforts from Don Brown, et al, Betty Rogers & I attended as the Kadampa Center was dedicated by Lama Zopa Rinpoche in 1993.) A dharma study group was formed in WDC, rotating through member's homes. We made requests for FPMT Teachers to come to DC, with Jeff Nye and Mandana Roberts, and so on, joyously taking teachings from Lama Zopa Rinpoche upon his visit there, naming Guhyasamaja Center. My family moved again... I tried to take on the position of Regional Coordinator remotely from Ligonier, PA and failed spectacularly at that effort -- a much longer story ensued. For the past 20 years we have lived in the Portland, Oregon metro area, I have been a long-time student of Geshe Kalsang Damdul and on the Board of Shakyamuni Tibetan Buddhist Center. I happily attend some events and teachings now and then at Maitripa College, and will always hold FPMT and our dear Dharma Teachers close to my heart.
