Relationship with FPMT of the deceased person: The deceased person was unfortunately not a follower of Buddhist teachings and so no relation to FPMT - he was born a Christian Orthodox but perhaps not really such a spiritual person. However he was always a great friend of my parents, with always a good heart - helping his friends and close ones and also those in need perhaps more than most people would be willing to help, always coming with a joke or with something that would bring laughter. He was a great man and a dear friend of my family.

Relationship with FPMT of the person requesting prayers: I am a practicing Buddhist. My relationship with FPMT goes back more than 9 years now but especially when I had the good fortune to be able to start attending the teachings of Geshe Sonam Ngodrup at the Maitreya Institute in Amsterdam which is an FPMT center. I took the opportunity to take refuge vows and bodhisattva vows a while ago and I will always be immensely grateful at the opportunity to do so and to encounter the Buddhist teachings and especially the teachings of the Tibetan lineages that I encountered through FPMT.
